

BISHOP VERNON GOES TO SOUTH AFRICA

The Rev. W. T. Vernon, pastor of Avery Chapel African Methodist Episcopal church, recently elected bishop at the general conference held in St. Louis to preside over the Seventeenth Episcopal Diocese, which includes the work of the church in South Africa with headquarters in Capetown and operations principally in the Transvaal, is preparing to sail for Europe in the early fall in time to attend the Synodical conference in London before proceeding to Africa.

Bishop Vernon is regarded as one of the leading members of his race in the United States. He was registrar of treasury under two presidents—Roosevelt and Taft—and before coming to Memphis four years ago was president of Campbell college in Jacksonville, Fla. He was president of Western American college in Kansas City when he was appointed registrar of the treasury. He will remain in Memphis until his successor is elected and enters upon the pastorate. Dr. Vernon will preach as usual Sunday.

TO TALK POTATOES.

SENATORIA, Miss., May 21 (Sp.)—Prof. R. H. Bryson, sweet potato expert, will address the Business Men's club of Senatobia Friday night on the subject of erecting drying and curing potato houses here. County Agent F. A. New states that Tate county is especially adapted to the growth of the sweet potato, and with a modern curing plant this crop could be made one of the sources of revenue for the farmers.

FOUR FACE RICHARDS.

Violating the liquor law is the charge on which J. W. Campbell, Mrs. Campbell, Rennie Bryant and Ethel Groves faced Judge J. D. Richards, in first criminal court Friday. The case still was being tried when court adjourned for lunch.

The Dead

YAZOO CITY, Miss.—Mrs. Eliza Crozier, daughter of one of the most prominent of the old families of Yazoo county, died suddenly Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William M. Hudson, at the age of 78 years. Her maiden name was Eliza Crozier Quackenbush, but both her parents died in 1813, and at the age of 13 years she was adopted into the family of Judge and Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson, close friends of the Quackenbush family. Educated at Nazareth, Ky., she graduated the first year of the Civil war, and on March 4, 1867, she was married to Edward W. Crozier, of Bardonia, Ky. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. William Hudson and Mrs. E. Crozier, both of Yazoo City, and two sons, George F. and Edward W. Crozier, both of Washington county, Miss. Funeral services were held at the St. Mary's Catholic church Tuesday, the Rev. Father P. C. Doyle repeating the requiem mass.

YAZOO CITY, Miss.—A. L. Bradley, 64, died here Monday. He was local representative in Yazoo City of the New York Life Insurance company. He is survived by three brothers, R. L. Bradley, of Mobile, a former member of the state railroad commission, A. H. Bradley, of Florida, and C. L. Bradley, of Pochontas. Funeral services were held at the First Methodist church, the Rev. L. E. Alford officiating.

PINE BLUFF, Ark.—Miss Bettie Aiken, 65, a resident of Pine Bluff for many years, died here Tuesday. She is survived by three sisters, Misses Eliza, Jennie and Rosa Aiken.

JONESBORO, Ark.—Mrs. L. V. Smith is dead at her home here. Deceased is survived by her husband and several children. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. E. A. Moody. Burial took place in Westlawn cemetery.

LAMBERT, Miss.—John J. Dickey died at his home Tuesday morning. "Uncle John," as he was familiarly known, was 75 years old, and one of the oldest residents of this section. He leaves his widow and four daughters, Mrs. Jennie Fuller, Pine Valley, Miss.; Mrs. Jessie Austin, Hinchey, Miss.; Mrs. Herschel Morris and Miss Bettie Dickey, of this place. Burial took place in the Lambert cemetery Tuesday afternoon. His pastor, the Rev. Mr. Clements, of Rome, Miss., officiated.

YAZOO CITY, Miss.—D. W. Coleman died at the Lintonia sanitarium, in this city, Monday, following injuries which he received when a car, in which he was driving, was struck by a Y. & M. train at one of the street crossings in Yazoo City. His widow recently came to this city from West Point, Miss., and his family had not yet found a home in this city. The widow and four children and the father, Mr. J. W. Coleman, a member of the legislature from West Point, were summoned following the accident, and remained with the injured man until his death, returning to West Point and thence to Montpelier, Miss., with the body, where the funeral services were held.

TREZZEVANT, Tenn.—Mrs. Bulah McDowell, 55, died at Dawson Springs, Ky., where she had gone for the benefit of her health. Her body was brought here for burial. Funeral services were conducted from the local Christian church by Elder Perry. The deceased is survived by her husband, W. J. McDowell, and one daughter, Mrs. Maxie Johnson, of this city, and one brother, Buck Terry, of Memphis.

PADUCAH, Ky.—Mrs. Fannie Banks, 40, wife of James G. Banks, of Murray, Ky., died at her home in that city. She had been ill for several months. Mrs. Banks is survived by her husband, her father, J. H. Utterback, and by two sons, Gordon Banks, Paducah, and Ivan Banks, Murray. Burial took place at Sturges.

PONTOTOC, Miss.—The body of Philip B. Bells, who lost his life near Florence, Ala., was brought to this place, his former home, for burial. The funeral was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bolton, Rev. H. P. Lewis conducted the service, assisted by Rev. W. A. Downing. The deceased was a world war soldier and the pallbearers were selected from his comrades in service.

PONTOTOC, Miss.—R. B. Abernethy died at his home, 11 Troy neighborhood and burial took place in the family cemetery. He was about 60 years of age and a member of the Baptist church. His wife preceded him to the beyond less than a year ago, but he leaves several children.

BRISTOL, Tenn.—News has been received here announcing the death of Mrs. Willie Benton Barnett, which occurred at her home at Erwin, Tenn. She is survived by her husband, J. W. Barnett, and two small children.

LIFT OFF CORNS

WITH FINGERS

Doesn't hurt a bit and costs only few cents

Magic! Just drop a little Freezone on that touchy corn, instantly it stops aching, then you lift the corn off with the fingers. Truly "X" number 1.

Try Freezone! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle for a few cents, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes and calluses, without one particle of pain, soreness or irritation. Freezone is the discovery of a noted Cincinnati genius.
